Advisory: Be Aware of Fake PIL Website

28 August 2023

We wish to inform you that we have discovered the existence of a suspicious website impersonating as a PIL website. We are currently working with the relevant authorities to identify the origin of this fake PIL website, and taking all appropriate action with the aim of taking down the website.

The address of the suspicious website is www.pilshippingline.com, and below is what the fake website looks like. We urge all our customers and partners to be aware of this and to avoid interacting with this website.

The correct address of PIL's official website is <https://www.pilship.com>. Please also use our PIL official mobile application for all transaction-related requests.

As scams and impersonation attempts are constantly evolving and becoming more sophisticated, please stay vigilant at all times.

If you have any doubts or require further clarification regarding this notice, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Thank you.

The screenshot shows the PIL website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for "Our Group", "Our Services", "Our Fleet & Equipment", "Careers", "News & Events", "eService", and "d". Below the navigation is a main content area with a 2x2 grid of tiles. The top-left tile contains the text "We have customers who have been with us for over 40 years - that speaks volumes." The top-right tile is titled "PIL Today". The bottom-left tile is titled "History & Milestones" and the bottom-right tile is titled "Our Values & Mission". Below the main content area is a "Service Network" section with four columns: "Service Network", "Schedules", "Track & Trace", and "News". The "Service Network" column has a "Select the Region..." dropdown and two "Select / Search Service Line" buttons. The "Schedules" column has a "Point2Point" section with "Select the Port and Period" and two "Select / Search Origin Port" buttons, and a "2021-05-24" date field with a "6 Weeks" dropdown and a "Submit" button. The "Track & Trace" column has "Container", "Booking Ref", and "Purchase Order" tabs, a "B/L Reference Number(s)" input field, and a "Where can I find B/L Number?" button. The "News" column has a news item titled "PIL as Operating Vessel Partner in Existing Consortium - China Pakistan Service (CPS)" with a date of "09 03" and a "Need more" link.
